

Andrew J. Rubin, CPA has been a partner with Gettry Marcus CPA, P.C. since 1987. Andrew has over 30 years of experience providing accounting, auditing and tax services to companies ranging in size.

As partner-in-charge of the firm's Construction Group, Mr. Rubin works closely with clients to guide them through the various accounting and tax issues which might impact construction businesses and their owners. He shares his expertise in the following areas: cash flow control and forecasts, financing and bonding company requirements, operational controls reviews, business acquisitions, dispositions and reorganizations, among others.

Mr. Rubin is also a member of the firm's Real Estate and Quality Control groups. He works with numerous commercial and residential real estate clients as well as real estate and private equity funds to provide them with accounting, consulting and tax support. His other areas of specialization include auditing and accounting in the financial services, wholesale distribution, importing and apparel industries. In addition, he is a trusted advisor to high-net-worth individuals, providing them with consulting, tax planning, and trust and estate services.

A graduate of Syracuse University, Andrew is a member of the New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants and the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. He is an elected trustee in the Incorporated Village of Atlantic Beach and a Board Member of the Lawrence Golf Club.
